This place is exceptionally beautiful and sketchable.

It is famous for amongst other things, the many photographs taken here by local photographer Frank Sutcliffe in the 1880's and we have an optional visit to see the entire collection.

The imposing Whitby Abbey on the hill as a backdrop is one of the most photographed scenes in Yorkshire.

Whitby is full of curios shops and twisting cobbled lanes and is wonderful to sketch.

Workshop here with Pat today before coach ride back to York.
